29TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear brothers and sisters in Jesus,

Mission in the Spirit of Service and Sacrifice

Wishing all of you a happy day and blessings on this Aloha Stewardship Sunday. It is so good to see you in today's Holy Mass. I am also welcoming every one of you with your family for the Family Seminar on October 25 and 26: Friday and Saturday ending with the Saturday Vigil Mass by our Bishop Larry Silva. The details are on the website.

Today is World Mission Sunday too. Today, the church invites us to reflect on our personal response to Christ's mission. It is a call to revitalize our faith and rededicate ourselves to Christ. It is also a day to show special solidarity to all true missionaries who have responded to Christ's command: "Go, make disciples of all nations."

This Sunday's gospel is an account of the petition of James and John, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you. Grant that in your glory, we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." This was a very ambitious request. However, Christ simply responded by reminding them of the implication of their request: "Can you drink the chalice that I am going to drink? Of course, they responded, "We can." So, through his dialogue with his disciples, Jesus opens our eyes to the realities ahead of us.

Mission is service and sacrifice rendered in love for the salvation of all nations. This love comes with patience and docility to the will of God. It begins by transforming us into a great instrument for the salvation of others. So, today Christ teaches us that to be great is to be ready to serve and to make sacrifices for others.

Let us not seek for the better place or position, but let us serve the Lord and His people to attain His kingdom. Have a wonderful week. God bless you.

With love and prayers,

Father Sebastian Soosai
Pastor

SECOND COLLECTION

World Mission Sunday Oct 26/27

“Go and invite everyone to the banquet.”
(Mt 22:19)

Next weekend, we celebrate World Mission Sunday, a powerful reminder of our call to be missionary disciples. This year’s theme, “Go and invite everyone to the banquet,” emphasizes our common call to bring God’s love and message to the ends of the earth. On this day we reflect on and support the Church’s missionary efforts while also recommitting ourselves to the same mission. The contributions given for the World Mission Sunday collection are crucial for sustaining the Church’s work in over 1,150 territories where the Church is young or struggling. Let us prepare our hearts and minds to celebrate together.
